THE LION

1937

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS
OF JUNIOR-SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL OF RED LION, PA.

FOREWORD

Senior Class of Red Lion High School proudly present 1937 Lion ✓ Illustration of progress in school life aim of staff ✓ Theme, "Time Marches On," portrays swift passage of four school years ✓ Pictures of activities, classes, and faculty exemplify real school life ✓ Achievements, character sketches, and pictures of Seniors record individual characteristics ✓ New Feature section adds humor through cartoons and snapshots ✓ Modern art gives book beauty and originality ✓ 1937 annual typifies Alma Mater ✓

*Threefold the stride of Time, from first to last!
Loitering slow, the Future creepeth—
Arrow-swift, the Present sweepeth—
And motionless forever stands the Past.*

—Frederick von Schiller

TO MISS DOROTHY M. STRINE . . .

Competent coach of dramatics and cheerleading ✧ Efficient commercial instructress ✧ Gracious friend and adviser dear to all ✧ In appreciation for her faithful service ✧ As recognition of her sympathetic, unselfish nature ✧ For her untiring efforts in our behalf ✧ Class of 1937 affectionately dedicates "The Lion" ✧

ALMA MATER

"Though very spacious by thy walls and wide thy playgrounds spread

And though thy adamantine walls tall tower over head."

"Yet all too narrow are thy bounds our fealty to contain

But hark! The very sky resounds and echoes our refrain.

"Oh dear old Red Lion High—"

THE SENIORS!

The memories of our classmates linger, their amusing traits, their virtues, their ambitions, their schoolday pranks & Let us again review the most outstanding characteristics & Here are the Seniors!—

Mary Barteaux with her "baby grand" will be welcomed at Oberlin with open arms & Sally Thompson and Helen Warner, our quiet lassies, need some of Betty Mead's, Allen Frey's, and Charles Miller's noisiness & Is "Chick" Miller pixilated or tetched? & Betty Jane Kohler and Charlotte Young, always have a string of admirers—why? & Friendly Aleta Stiles and Leah Godfrey stick together like flies on fly paper & "Squirt" Slenker, and his way with "wimmen" &

Wilbur Hall, the whistling newsboy, greets the dawn and Portia Ritz with the morning paper & The girl who starts the laughs in Chemistry class—Alma Sprenkle & Lena Snyder—the belle of Yoe, a good actress, the "dinner partner" of Undertaker Taylor, an admirer of a Dallastown lad & Verlyn McCleary, Theda Wolfgang, and Dolores Blouse are doing all right with these temperamental Poets & An infectious giggle, a petite artiste—Charlotte Reachard & Geraldine Feigler is interested in Chevrolets; ask the man who sells them & The chief "Clean Up Boss" at noon, Room 4b, Margaret Stein &

Dale L. Smith is requested to recite "Columbus" on our Commencement program & Lost, strayed, or stolen—"Ham" Snyder, Ella Baker, Robert Gates, and Gene Fake? & Ferne Poet, the red haired Girl Reserve who wants to become a linguist, has a fondness for boys with sandy hair and flashy smiles & Where Ferne is, look for the girl with a big heart and a big appetite—Estella Mae Keeports & Glenn Smeltzer used to ask Geraldine Laucks for a date, now he merely says, "What time?" &

Miriam Graham doesn't believe that Latin is a dead language & Henry Seitz will be remembered as our ideal boy, class president, and the boy who says, "I won't dance!" & Two members of the "Nut Club," Allen Fry and Stewart LaMotte, who usually show their eligibility to it, find Freshman girls very fascinating & Dale Smith doesn't mind the doors on the Ford falling off when the horn is blown, if he can ride in Red Lion & Black hair, brown eyes, lots of friends, an interest in Notre Dame—that's Mary Barteaux &

Betty Meads—our most courageous girl, because she dares to wear "pig tails" & Flash—rah—wow—Jay Smith just made another touchdown & One hundredth of a second before the final bell rings; in walks Lyle Sprenkle & Hilda Ferree goes to Ursinus College—how far is that from F. and M? & Leona Slenker has a more than casual interest in Glen Rock, incidentally the home town of Vernon Stiles & Horses couldn't drag Dolores Hengle out of Mr. Baugher's study hall & Zora Miller prefers Gates' home cooked dinners &

Wanted—a witty stenographer, who makes friends easily. June Dixon gets the job & Click—Elsie Fake snaps another snapshot for the "Lion"—result—she had her thumb over the lens & A dramatic moment; Walter Fake says, "Case dismissed, I must go home to see my wife." & James Forry, the "Problem Child" from Yoe, likes English Class. Ask him & Repeated trips to East Prospect cause lots of wear and tear on "Ginny" Fake's Ford & Lost—all energy after Football season—finder return to Clarence Gladfelter & Dorcas Dunnick and Ruth Sanders, have a wide range of interests: York, Baltimore, etc. & Rachel Grimm wants to become a Librarian, but watch out for Dan Cupid & Virginia Grove is a good girl even at lunch time—she eats with some of our faculty & Our wonder man, George Haubert; we are the ones who wonder & Bills are usually not very exciting; but one Bill from Dallastown makes Dorothy Grove's heart flutter &

Mary Hershner's future—a paper hanger; she doesn't even need a stepladder & "Variety is the spice of life," Robert Holland's motto; does he live up to it? & Dorothy Hutton, one of the few blonds of our class & Myles Jones, a nice boy with blue eyes, curly hair, and a car—What more is necessary? & Who's alright?—Gerald and Geraldine Laucks, the pair of twins of our class. Gerald will protect his sister when he becomes one of the "big state cops" & Thelma Linnemans and Margaret McCleary, fast friends, mutual gigglers & When you want to go some place, see Verlyn McCleary, always ready, willing, and able &

Murphy—the Rubinfoff of our class, and his violin! & Dances well, good sports manager, witty, full of fun, wants to be a sports writer; everybody knows Pret EisenSmith! & One of the Shades of Blue, Ruth Ferree, broadcasts regularly over the radio & Will Lois Free live up to her last name? & A cute name, a nice girl, somebody's secretary—Bonnie Jeanne Hibbs & Need any milk today? Tuberculin tested Vitamin D content. Ask John Hively & A fish, a dog, a rabbit, or a partridge; the mention of them makes sportsman Robert

Holtzinger's heart take a bigger jump than any blond or brunette ever has § If the little cherubs won't behave, just sock one or two, when you become a teacher, Grace Keesey §

Needed—a gentle hand to sooth your feverish brow. Call on the four competent nurses, Dorothy Miller, Gladys Ness, Annabel Roth, and Helen Warner § Want a good book? Ask Yetta Seitz, who reads practically all in the library § Margaret McCleary slowly matures with the help of a clarinet § Some day in the dim future Winfield Taylor expects to experience a transition; from female to male § Dennis Keener, the man with mud on his tires, looks forward to a future as sexton of Salem Church § Is Charles Miller finally learning to keep his mouth shut, with Mr. Nitchkey as an inducer? § At last there's a combination in those fancy free Yoe pupils, Gladys Ness and LaVere Miller § You wouldn't a-thunk it; bashful "Pret" Gohn boasts of an attractive brunette over at Goram; but where's Goram? § If you want that Byrd boy from Windsor, just say "Roosevelt," and run! §

Every morning Henry Seitz is seen driving the eighty horses of his eighty H.P. "Chevy" into school around eight ten § Dominating the field of athletics in our class since our Freshmen days is Hoyer Shindler, or "Pat" to his eighth grade acquaintances § This year's hero of Intra-Mural Basketball is the short, dark, and handsome Lyle Sprenkle, sometimes seen, but never heard § If Michael Strayer has four cents he will give you five of it—his extreme generosity § One person in our class likes to hear Gerald Laucks sing better than anyone else, of course it's Charlotte Young, president of the Girls' Athletic Association §

Tall, dark, and handsome! That's not all—a good artist, a writer, and an athlete. There ain't no sech creature? Oh, yes there is—Stewart LaMotte § Janet Crumbling just loves music; especially mountain music § Charlotte Gentzler shows her faithfulness to Red Lion High through her trusty violin § How many times has Ruth Myers blushed this year? § When Donald Smith graduates it will almost seem like leaving the "old home" § Charlotte Wakely has a peculiar habit of taking baths in the inkwells § She finds happiness within nine miles of our fair city—Vernetta Grim § Although John Keesey and Donald Shenberger just entered school this year, they have made many friends § We salute Earl Smith as the best "stamp licker" Red Lion High has ever had § Girls, support Lucretia Flinchbaugh when she opens her dress shop § Dale Jones is now deeply involved in politics, in the form of a Congressman's daughter § Last but not the least heard—"Jimmie" Smith, who makes the whole world stop to listen when he opens his mouth §

Mary McGinnis's smile will be helpful in serving others. Leah Godfrey and Helen Strickler may join her in this high ambition § Wonder why Leroy Lauer is always in a daze? He's possibly dreaming about the wild game running free outside of school § Don't forget to patronize Erma Mellinger and Erdean Miller as beauticians § Beauty and intelligence, are blended in the personality of Janet Holtzinger. Does anyone deny her ability; like-wise her appeal to a Junior member of the basketball team? §

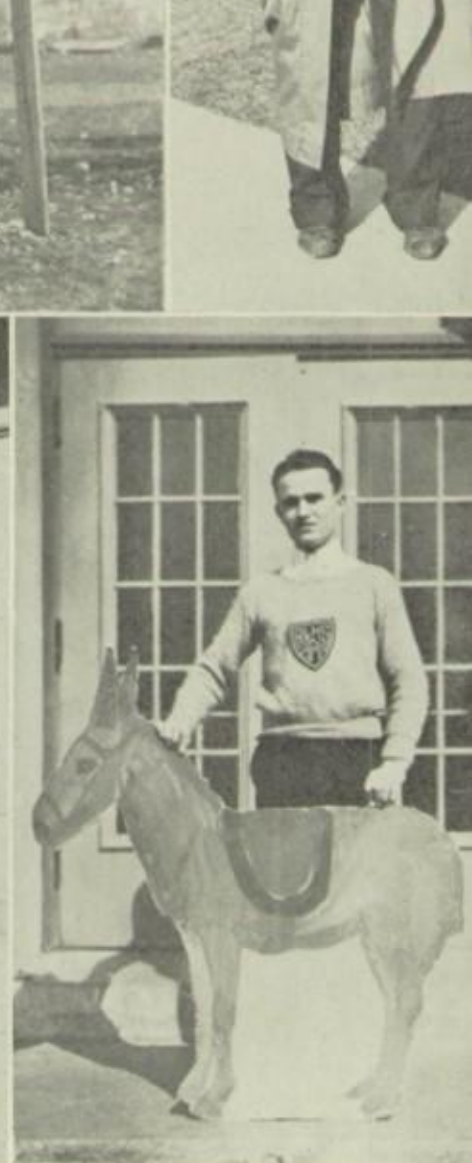

One and only chemistry student who should get an A, but doesn't—"bashful" Gene Bull § Jean Dalbey, a room one lassie, is caught "between two fires," one in Dallastown, one in Craley § If you can broad jump nineteen feet, try matching your skill against Dale Downs, the star track man in our class § The names of Elsie Fake and Elwood Slenker go together like milk and flour when baking a wedding cake §

"Better late than never" says Hilda Ferree, walking into the classroom many, many, many seconds late § "Witty"—James Forry lives up to this description § Allen Fry was mentioned before in this section, but a name so powerful should be mentioned again—Allen Fry! § Wilbur Hall, a very good miler, has a blush which puts the color of a beet to shame § Completely dominating this list is George William Haubert who spends his spare time managing the school basketball team §

Robert Holland, a very able ball carrier of our football team, abdicates position on the basketball team "for the woman he loves" § Janet and Robert Holtzinger could be called "Gold Dust Twins," sincerely, for we all think them worth their weight in gold § Ever see Stepin Fetchit on the screen? Well, there's one difference between him and Dennis Keener, he's black and Dennis is white § Nature must have been shy in flesh and bones when "Ginny" Kohler, the smallest lassie in our class, was constructed § Chemistry will soon be forgotten by Phyllis Kaltreider, but that burn received from Chemistry's nastiest playboy, Nitric Acid, will remain in her thoughts forever § As valuable as the Holtzinger twins are in the scholastic line, just as valuable are the Laucks twins, Gerald and Geraldine, in the musical set up § Laughing and jolly all the time—that Leroy Lauer fellow who hails from the hamlet known universally as Felton §

Many say Jim Farley won the election for Roosevelt; it is more correct to say Charles Miller and Dale Murphy § Theodore Miller could easily be called a tree choppin' terror from Tennessee except for the fact that he doesn't live in Tennessee and he doesn't chop trees, he raises chicken! § Want to see what the well dressed man is wearing this year? Just consult C. Martin Neff, fashion plate among the males § Ralph Runkle, a jolly good fellow, takes part in all school productions and manages the gridiron warriors of our educational institution. §
